Million-Dollar Deal About to Be Consummated. Farmer Complains That Rabbits Are Pest

Ispecial to The Times-Dispatch of the Minchester. Va., November 26.—According to well-authenticated reports which have been current for the past few days, a $1,000,000 orchard deal is about to be consummated in Frederick and Berkeloy counties by Pittsburgh and West Virginia capitalists. It is the most gigantle undertaking of the kind ever contemplated in this section of Virginia and the neighboring portions of West Virginia. It is understood that options have been obtained on a large number of the best orchards in the northern and western or free men, armed with guns, went in pursuit of the animal, but it is more in pursuit of the animal, but it is supposed the deer had been chased out of the mountains by hunters and dogs.

Notwithstanding the supposed perfect mechanism of the block system, a very costly freight wreck occurred and Ohio Railroad, near Shenandeah Junction, when a local crashed into the point of the lock in the direction of the mountains of the mountains.

Notwithstanding the supposed perfect mechanism of the block system, a very costly freight wreck occurred to close the order of the mountains of the mountains.

Notwithstanding the supposed perfect mechanism of the block sys tion of Virginia and the neighboring portions of West Virginia. It is understood that options have been obtained on a large number of the best torchards in the northern and western sections of Frederick and the southern and southwestern parts of Berkeley, as well as a few in Hampshire county, W. Va. Several deals have already been made public, prices for single orchards ranging from $40,000 to $75,000.
